Dear Parishioners

Our parish thrives on the unique gifts, time, and talents that each person brings, and there is a place here for everyone to belong. Getting involved in parish life is one of the most rewarding ways to deepen your faith and build lasting connections within our community. Whether you feel called to serve in liturgical ministries like reading or music, or if you'd prefer to support your parish through upkeep of the church or supporting young families as we prepare children for the sacraments or simply participate in community social events or promote our parish through social media, your presence, talents and gifts makes a difference.

We warmly invite you to step forward into ministry, explore our various ministries, and share in the joy of growing together as a vibrant faith community and family.

Fr. John
