The Most Holy Trinity

The Trinity is not first of all a puzzle, which in principle could be solved, but rather a mystery, a relationship which is first of all lives, never exhausted and only inadequately spoken of in words. This is true of any of the significant relationships in our lives and true therefore all the more so of God. Within the mystery of that relationship, we recognise God, from whom we have come, in whom we live and move and have our being. We recognise the Son, the Way, the Truth and the Life. We recognise the Spirit, who helps us to pray when we do not know how to pray as we ought.

Reflection –The short prayer, 'In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, Amen' is one of the riches of the Church's treasure of prayer. (Source St Paul's Missal)
